

In this generic transaction module web service can be integrated. See also Transaction

Field	Description
Paragraph ID	Identifier, to reference the answers to this element
Class Name	Defines the process to be executed. For the generic transaction "generic web service" must be selected
Additional Parameters	Here the technical additional parameters can be set like target URL paragraph ID of the data
Payload	If the data mapping has been created in a central document it can be set as reference here
Mapping	If there is no central mapping referenced the data mapping can be inserted manually in this field
Visibility Condition	This question group will be visible only if the given OGNL expression evaluates to true.

